1. Script/Story(8 marks) :- Probably the most important element of any film. Storyline is the heart of any film. You might've seen films with a lot action scenes and VFX, but lack of proper story makes it flop on box office. This is the only element which should be given the most attention

Sub-criterias:

- Concept (3 marks)
- Plot (3 marks)
- Dialouges (2 marks)

2 Acting(7 marks) :- Performance of the actors. An actor can change the fate of film solely by his/her performance. We've seen films, which lacked many things, but the breathtaking performance of actors made it bring laurels.

Sub-criterias:

- Facial Expressions (3 marks)
- Voice Modulation (3 marks)
- Body Language (1 mark)

Note:- If Family Members are Participating :-
